

OLEMA

Sonoma County Chardonnay
2014

#1 – “Greatest Value Wines of the Year”

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate:

"The 2014 Chardonnay Olema at $15.00 from Sonoma is a heck of a bottle of wine, with honeysuckle, lemon blossom and a touch of white peach all present in this wine that offers clean, pure fruit, medium body and a distant hint of wood. This is a terrific value and sleeper selection. Drink it over the next year. This winery has a large and varied portfolio of wines, including their four value picks, which consumers need to notice. (RP)" 12/2016

91 pts James Suckling:

"This is really refined and fresh with sliced apple and lemon aromas. Hints of stone too. Medium to full body, an almost salty undertone. Medium finish. Bright and tangy. Gorgeous limey undertone." 06/2016
