What To Drink Now: Red Wine Options for Under $25

High quality wine doesn't have to cost a fortune, and these bottles prove it.

One of the prettiest Rosé wines I've recently enjoyed is Olema Rosé ($16, Total Wine) highlighting the beauty of wines from Provence with wild herbs, tangerine, and stone fruit.

Olema Pinot Noir ($20) layers wild strawberry and black truffle, with soft tannins and balanced acidity to keep the wine light and lively.
